DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

This office action is responsive to amendment filed July 9, 2007. Applicant canceled claim 1 and added new claims 2-8. Claims 2-8 are currently pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Gardenswartz 6,298,330 in view of Goldhaber U.S. No. 5,855,008, in view of Walker et al. U.S. Patent No. 6,086,477 and further in view of Vance U.S. Patent No. 6,267,672.

Regarding claim 2, Gardenswartz teaches (a) entering into the computer an advertiser offer that said recipients will be owed an amount of money if they pay attention to a specified ad message, and if they satisfy a set of at least one target audience characteristics (the value contract is a promotional incentive in which the consumer is offered a reward for complying with a particular behavioral pattern such as a predefined change in behavior or the continuance of an established behavior); (b) stating said characteristics as a set of offer conditions by said advertiser, (c) specifying said amount of money as an expected value (EV), said EV to be paid via an EV payment bet including a Payoff, (d) presenting an interface to the public for enabling anyone to access and accept said offer, (e) registering acceptance of said offer by a user called a recipient, said acceptance entailing: registering the recipient's identity (see col. 14 line 54 to col.

Art Unit: 3622

15 line 45). Gardenswartz teaches the consumer being offered a reward for complying with a particular behavioral pattern but does not explicitly teach the value contract is rewarded if they pay attention to an ad message and also purchase the product. Goldhaber teaches entering into the computer an advertiser offer that said recipients will be owed an amount of money if they pay attention to a specified ad message (see col. 7. lines 23-67, col. 11 line 49 to col. 12 line 45 and col. 14 line 65 to col. 17 line 25). Gardenswartz teaches in order for a consumer to fulfill a value contract and receive a reward, the consumer may be required to purchase a pre-selected amount of a specified product within a predetermined amount of time. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to know that the consumer of Gardenswartz would view the ad message of the product that they are required to purchase. Thus, one of ordinary skill in the art would expect the consumers to pay attention to the product, as in Goldhaber, before they purchase the product and receive the offer, as in Gardenswartz.

Walker teaches paying expected value including a payoff to players (see col. 9 line 1 to col. 10 line 48). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to combine Gardenswartz's reward for purchasing product and Walker lottery system, since randomly selecting winners and paying expected value of the award to selected ones reduce the outcome of bets or winners. Therefore, one would be motivated to provide chance of winning to all participants and paying Expected value to only selected winner in order to reduce the outcome. Both Gardenswartz/Goldhaber/Walker failed to teach inspecting winners, if they satisfy offer condition, it is taught in Vance. Vance teaches winners submit information prior to receiving the prize (see col. 6 lines 34-54). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to combine Gardenswartz's value contract offer and Walker's payment of expected value and Vance verification of winners, in order to prevent dishonest consumers from fraudulently claiming prizes, as taught by Vance (see col. 6 lines 34-54).

Regarding claims 3-7, Gardenswartz teaches entering an offer in which one of said target audience characteristics is that recipients of said amount of money must, after exposure to said message, purchase a specified product or service within a specified period of time; said amount of money paid to recipients varies depending on the amount of said purchase; one of said target audience characteristics is that recipients make said purchase at a specified location; recipients make said purchase with a specified payment vehicle; who the recipients make said purchase from (col. 15 line 9 to col. 16 line 41).

Regarding claim 8, Gardenswartz does not teach entering an offer in which one of said target audience characteristics is that said recipient is the purchasing decision-maker for a specified organization. However official notice is taken that is old and well known for retailer to provide reward to decision-maker of companies for procuring product for the company or organization. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention for Gardenswartz to provide the value contract offer to company buyers to maximize the profit.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2-8 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Applicant requested that the examiner update the file to reflect that this current application traces priority not only to application 09/536,727, but also to PCT application US 00118715. The file already indicates that the instant applicant is CIP of application 09/536,727 and it is also indicated that the application 09/536,727 claims priority to the PCT and to the provisional application 60142592.

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
